The Music Cellar Policies

LESSON YEAR: Our lesson year is based on a total of 38 lessons and scheduled events.

MISSED LESSONS: There may be times when students have to miss their lessons or schedules conflict. When we are notified at least 24 hours in advance, we will make every effort to offer one alternate lesson slot. However, please note that we cannot guarantee that there will always be another slot available to offer. TMC has a fully-booked schedule and therefore we can only offer slots that have been vacated by other students who have provided advance notice of their absence. We ask that you keep rescheduling to a minimum.

TEACHER RE-SCHEDULING: There may occasionally be times when a lesson is re-scheduled at the teacher's request, but we assure you that this is kept to a minimum. Sometimes the teacher may choose to plan a special event, such as a master class, workshop, or concert, to replace a lesson. Events such as these greatly add to the variety of innovative opportunities offered at The Music Cellar and are well-received.

CANCELLATION: A written TWO WEEK notice is required to terminate lessons at The Music Cellar. Payments will be adjusted and prorated after the two-week notice period is served. If there are any difficulties that we should be aware of, please be sure to notify us so that we can attempt to resolve any problems (ie: possible teacher, program or instrument change). SEE REVERSE →
